Clause 3 – EVENT PROCEEDINGS

Start and Finish

 Start: will be given on Saturday 22nd October at 10h00 on the Avenue Colonel Teyssier approximately 200 meters from the stadium.

 Finish: The event will finish on Sunday 23rd October at 10h00 by a sound signal given by the official judge.

Circuit measurement

- The day before, or on the morning of the event, the itinerary will be measured by the official judges after putting in place the barriers or other technical details.
- The organisation will install markers every 100 meters.

- The finish will be judged by the time-keepers and the computer company at the control centre.
- A sound signal will be given by the starter 1 minute before the end of the 24 hours.

 A second sound signal will indicate the end of the event.

- In the last quarter of an hour of the event, the organisation will put in position a jury, positioned every 100 meters, they will be in charge of placing securely the witness markers, until the official judges have passed to measure the exact distance covered after the last passage of the line.
- 20 minutes before the end of the event, the organisation will give a wooden and numbered (corresponding to the bib number) witness stick to each runner who will place in on the ground with his/her bib, as soon as the second sound signal is given to end the race.
- For any athlete not on the circuit at the time of the final sound signal, the last recording before his/her stop will be taken into account and will find him/herself ranked with the mention abandon.

An anti-doping control is possible.

Itinerary

 Circuit:

- Itinerary of approximately 1120 m, within the Albi stadium.

 Profile and surface:

- The itinerary is totally flat and fully lighted, WC's for men and for women on the boundary of the circuit, resting and care rooms in the local council buildings for the comfort of the athletes.
- The race surface is covered for 700 m by tarmac and 400 m of tartan track.

 Accompanying parties and helpers:

- On foot or on bikes, the accompanying parties and helpers are strictly forbidden on the circuit and in the aide station zones during the entire event; the event officials are in charge of this control.
- All circulation on the circuit is forbidden, only the security vehicles and the vehicles of the organisation have access to the circuit.

Refreshment zone

 Organisation refreshments:

- Refreshments will be adapted to the event and assured by the organisation during the entire time of the race.
- From the start of the race sweet and savoury products and hot and cold beverages will be available.

- Athletes will help themselves from the tables, or in conformity with the IAAF regulations, may be served by a previously designated person. This person must wear a badge with the identical bib number of the athlete.

Personal refreshments:

- Each runner "Open" will be allocated a space of 1 meter under a tent with a table and chair reserved for the "Open" runner.
- No refreshments may be given to runners outside of the defined zones.

Time keeping

Counting system:

- Counting will be controlled by a microchip attached to the runners' shoe, passage over the carpet in the channelling zone will trigger the circuit counter.

Bibs:

- The organisation will supply 2 pairs of bibs to each athlete.
- One bib must be placed on the front and the other on the back of the runner. The bibs must be completely visible at all times. Partner's names must not be masked under sanction of disqualification.
- The second set of bibs is supplied for a change of clothing.

Official rankings:

- At each passage, the competitor can see on the control screen, the number of circuits, the number of kilometres and the ranking.
- Verification of the computer counts will be undertaken each hour by the judges/referees and the results will be posted on notice boards in proximity to the circuit.
- The posting of different documents relative to the event is under the responsibility of the organisation. The notice boards will be placed in proximity to the circuit and accessible to all.

Complaints

- During the event, the athlete may place a complaint to the judges/referees.
- At the end of the event, the athlete may also place a complaint to the judges/referees during the 30 minutes after the posting of the results validated by the judges/referees.
- An appeals jury will be put in place to examine and give a ruling for any eventual dispute/complaint.
